

Gulf of Maine Racing News

The local lowdown on sailboat racing in the Gulf of Maine

May 31, 2008

We've been waiting for it all winter, and in a couple of weeks, the racing season will begin in earnest with the award-winning Centerboard Regatta on Saturday, June 14. The NOR is up at www.centerboard.org.

Centerboard won GMORA's Hospitality Award in both 2006 and 2007. They offer a friendly atmosphere at the club and great racing in and around Portland Harbor, so you couldn't ask for a better way to kick off the season.

There will be coffee and donuts before the race and hot food afterwards. The band For Pete's Sake will be back providing post-race entertainment again this year. Anyone who was there last year can tell you what a blast it was. So why not come back for more?

There will be more news about the upcoming season in a couple of weeks, so stay tuned.

Gulf of Maine Racing News is sent weekly (more or less) during racing season to Gulf of Maine sailors. It is sent a little less often during the off-season. Suggestions are welcome. Forward this along to crew, fellow sailors, or anyone else who might be interested. Please send ideas/suggestions/comments and any additions/deletions/revisions to the mailing list to maineyachtracing@verizon.net.
